MAYOR'S OFFICE FROM DYNAMITE EXPLOSION

Five Sticks of Deadly Material With Half Burned Attachment Planted Outside of Office in City Hall Park.

TIGHT COTTON WRAPPING PREVENTED A BLOW UP

Fire Department Expert Carries Explosive Away as Police Keep Back Huge Crowd.

Dynamite enough to wreck the west side of the whole sticks and two half sticks of 40 per cent. gelation cap and fuse attached-were found in the most under the windows of the Mayor's suite of offices this afternoon.

Owen Egan, Inspector of Combustibles, discovered that but for the fact that where the fuse led into the fulminating cap in the broken dynamite stick cotton wool had been wrapped so tightly about the fuse an to have smothered the fire the dynamite would have been exploded. The fuse appeared to have been a rough, home-made affair of paper. rolled in the form of a cylinder and packed with powder.

The Mayor was told of the discovery, but evidenced no interest in the circumstance and remained in his office while hurry calls were sent out for Fire Com-missioner Johnson and the expert to combustibles.
As soon as Johnson heard the report

he hurried down to the City Hall, and, dynamite had spread and a growd began to gather, he ordered that the sticks of deadly explosive be covered with a piece of gunnysack. Policemen from the east end of the building, kept the
